

Alpari (UK) Limited (in special administration) (“the Company”)

Update for clients with negative balances – 20 April 2016

This update is in addition to previous information

Beeston Shenton Solicitors Limited (“Beeston Shenton”)

The Joint Special Administrators have appointed Beeston Shenton with regard to legal action in recovery of the debts due from clients with negative balances. Please accept this notice as confirmation that Beeston Shenton are formally authorised and instructed to act on behalf of the Company and the Joint Special Administrators and to accept payments due to the Company.

Beeston Shenton will contact clients directly. You should raise any questions or queries with them in the first instance and they will liaise with the Company and the Joint Special Administrators as appropriate.